

Proverbs 27:2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

Sunday- What Does This Mean?

Focus: God teaches us to be humble.

Teaching Point: This verse reminds us that we don't need to brag about ourselves. When we do good, God sees it — and others will notice too.

Activity: "What does it mean to brag?"

Have your child give one example of bragging and one example of staying humble.

Monday- Let Your Actions Speak

Focus: Good actions speak louder than words.

Teaching Point: Instead of telling others how good we are, God wants our behavior to show it.

Kindness, obedience, and honesty speak for us.

Activity: Give your child a small task (helping, sharing, cleaning) and say: "Today, let your actions speak." Afterward ask: "Did you need to say anything for people to notice?"

Tuesday- Giving God the Credit

Focus: All good things come from God.

Teaching Point: When something good happens, we shouldn't take all the credit. Giving thanks to God keeps our hearts humble.

Activity: Do a quick "Helper Swap" activity. Have your child try a small task alone (building, cleaning etc), then do it with help. Ask: "Which was easier?" "Who helped you succeed?"

Explain: "Just like you needed help, we need God. That's why we don't praise ourselves."

Wednesday- Bragging Vs. Gratitude

Focus: Gratitude keeps us humble.

Teaching Point: Bragging focuses on ourselves, but gratitude focuses on God and others.

Activity: Say two sentences and ask which one honors God more: "I'm the best at this!"

"I'm thankful God helped me do this." Let your child choose and explain why.

Thursday- God Knows Our Heart

Focus: God sees who we really are.

Teaching Point: Even when no one is watching, God knows our hearts. We don't need praise from others when we are doing what's right.

Activity: Have your child do a kind act in secret (clean quietly, help without being asked).

Later ask: "How did it feel to do good without telling anyone?"

Friday- Doing Everything for God

Focus: Humility pleases God.

Teaching Point: When we choose humility, we allow God to lift us up at the right time.

Scripture Memorization: Have the child recite the scripture from heart.
