

Proverbs 12:26 The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

Sunday- What Does This Mean?

Focus: The people we spend time with influence us.

Teaching Point: God wants us to choose friends wisely. Good friends encourage us to do what is right, while bad influences can lead us into trouble.

Activity: Ask your child "What makes someone a good friend?" "What makes someone a bad influence?"

Monday- Friends Help Us Make Good Choices

Focus: Godly friends encourage righteousness.

Teaching Point: A good friend helps us obey God, tell the truth, and make wise decisions.

Activity: Draw a friend and write qualities around them such as: Kind, Honest, Helpful, Respectful, Encouraging etc. Discuss why these qualities matter.

Tuesday-Bad Influences Can Lead Us Away

Focus: Not everyone is a good example.

Teaching Point: Sometimes people encourage us to do things we know are wrong. God wants us to recognize those influences and choose wisely.

Activity: Play "Good Choice or Bad Choice?" Read different scenarios and let your child decide whether the friend is being a good influence or a bad influence.

Wednesday- Choosing Friends Carefully

Focus: We should choose friends who help us grow.

Teaching Point: The people closest to us often affect our attitudes, words, and actions.

Activity: Read short scenarios and ask your child: "Would this person be a good influence?" "Why or why not?" Examples: A friend encourages you to tell the truth. A friend wants you to hide something from your parents. A friend makes fun of others for fun. Etc. Discuss what makes a wise friend.

Thursday-Being the Right Friend

Focus: We should be the kind of friend we want to have.

Teaching Point: God not only wants us to choose good friends—He wants us to be one.

Activity: Have your child do one act of friendship today: Help someone, Share, etc.

Friday- Walking With The Wise

Focus: Wise friendships help us stay on the right path.

Teaching Point: When we surround ourselves with righteous influences, it becomes easier to make good choices and follow God.

Scripture Memorization: Have the child recite the scripture from heart.
